Sports Cars, Race Cars, and Full Sized Vans...

We had so much fun exploring these vehicles! Beforehand the children made a list of "I wonder" questions. Then we headed to the parking lot to find out the answers.

Tomorrow we will be documenting what we learned through a photograph, writing and drawing project. If you "like" Centerville Baptist Preschool on Facebook - Cathy has posted lots of photos of our exploration. Reminder

School will be closed Thursday 1/26, Friday 1/27 and Monday 1/30. Classes resume Tuesday 1/31. I will be absent Tuesday and Wednesday this week. We are taking our boys for their first visit to Disney World. Stacey Soady (Ben's mom) will be subbing.

Homework

Homework Letter Bags and Workbook bags are due tomorrow. There will be no homework this week.

Kindergarten Information Night

As I mentioned last week, I will be hosting a Kindergarten Information Night on January 31st @ 6:30pm. Please spread the word if you know anyone who might be interested. I also have a request.

Would anyone be interested in joining me that evening to share a parent's perspective of our program? I won't put you on the spot or ask you to speak in front of the group but I'd love to have you there to share with interested families as they tour our classroom and center activities. If you are interested, please let me know!

Thank you,

Jennifer
