

January 9-13

Theme: Animals

Prayer: God watches over us all the day.
At home, at school & at our play.
And when the sun has left the sky,
He watches us with a million eyes!
Amen

Bible Verse: "Be kind one to another." Ephesians 4:32

Letter of the week: Cc

Dates to remember: January 16 - school closed
January 26 - school closed
January 27 - school closed

Science: The class will sort and peel crayons and then break them into small pieces and place the pieces into muffin pans. I will then heat the crayon pieces in the oven. Once the crayons have melted, I will remove the pans and allow the crayons to cool, thus creating "rainbow" crayons. The children will complete Scholastic magazines "Penguin Pen Pals" and "Snow Monkeys Have a Ball".

Art: The children will create a picture using only a purple crayon, complete a January calendar, and color with the rainbow crayons they created.

Math: The class will complete activities in the math bins for numbers 1-15. Using reusable car learning mats the children will match and trace numbers 1-15.

Language Arts: The children will create Cc using wikki stix, match and trace the ABC's using car learning mats, and complete workbook pages for Cc.

Dramatic Play: The class will play with a My Little Pony and Batman castle.

Computer: The children will play the living book, "The Cat in the Hat".

Listening Center: The class will listen to "Colors" by Richard Scarry using my Nook color.

A few of the books we will enjoy this week are:

"Harold and the Purple Crayon" by: Crockett Johnson

"The Crayon Box that talked" by: Shane DeRolf

"A Day with no Crayons" by: Elizabeth Rusch

"Clifford and the Dinosaurs" by: Norman Bridwell

Songs and Poems:

A Rainbow of Colors

Wouldn't it be terrible? Wouldn't it be sad?
If just one single color was the color that we had?
If everything was purple? Or red? Or blue? Or green?
If yellow, pink, or orange was all that could be seen?
Can you just imagine how dull world would be
If just one single color was all we got to see?

CRAYONS

By Helen H. Moore

I had a box of crayons,
All shiny, straight, and new.
I lent a friend one crayon,
And - oops! - it broke in two!
My friend said she was sorry,
But I said "I don't care,
'cause now we both can color
with one crayon. We can share!"

Scholastic Book Orders: Parents can go to www.scholastic.com; access the "Parents" tab and view the current flyers available. Parents may order online with our access code and the books will be delivered to the school. Our access code is DXC44.
