

A Note from the Teachers

Hello everyone,

Hope you all enjoyed your long weekend.

Just a reminder I will not be in class tomorrow. Mrs. Soady stopped in our class for a while last Wednesday to meet all of the children. She will be teaching for me tomorrow, so please remind the children. This week we will be starting the letter T.

Like I said in my last email, because of the two short weeks we had, we did our review for letter P and then started on letter R.

This is what all we have been doing:

Art: Water color a fall scene and leaves. Colored a paper rocket. Finished our pumpkin patch.

Books: The Pumpkin Patch Parable. My Letter R book. Timothy Whale's Rainbow. The Falling Leaves and the Scarecrow.

Language Arts: Sentence of the week for letter R, name tracing, and workbook pages for the letter R.

Math: Counted pumpkin seeds. Patterns with ink stamps.

Science: Cut open our class pumpkin. Observed and cleaned out the inside of the pumpkin.

Talked about rockets. Colored a paper rocket and shot it into the air.

Made a liquid rainbow with milk and food coloring.

Ramp racing. We set of different size ramps. Then raced a car down the ramp and measured how far the car went.

Fine Motor: Play-doh, whole punching, scissors, leaf rubbings, and drawing on the easel.

Gross Motor: Running and racing in the gym.

Bible: Talked about rainbows and God's promise.

If you have any questions, please let me know.

Thank you,
Karen Corwin
